

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS

A Charter Granted to the Hope-Maury Chapter.

MRS. MONTAGUE HONORED

[The First Thursday in October Selected as Day to Present Crosses of Honor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., October 28.—The granting of a charter to the new Hope-Maury Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was among the many interesting events of today's session of the convention. This chapter has recently been organized in Norfolk by about fifty former members of the Pickett-Buchanan Chapter of that city, between whom and their former Confederate sisters today's discussion of the question showed very decided difference of opinion.

A communication from the Hope-Maury Daughters, asking for a charter, was read, and upon motion of Mrs. Randolph, president of the Richmond Chapter, the charter was granted, after considerable debate. Mrs. Frank Hamilton Walker is president of the new chapter.

MRS. MONTAGUE HONORED.
Mrs. Governor Montague was an honored guest of the convention, and Mrs. James A. Scott, of Lynchburg, registrar of the Virginia Division, was appointed to escort Mrs. Montague to a seat on the platform.

Mrs. Montague, as first vice-president of the Home for Needy Confederate Women, announced that the institution had been opened in October.

There was some discussion as to the selection of a day for the presentation of crosses of honor by the State chapter, and it was decided that the president of the division should appoint the time. The first Thursday in November was chosen.

Mrs. McCulloch, chairman of the Jefferson Davis Monument Committee, reported that there was $37,500 in the treasury.

Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, chaplain of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia, spoke on the subject of the Confederate Battle Abbey, for which he stated that $30,000 had been raised, but by the terms of the gift, Mr. Charles Broadway House, it was necessary to reserve $100,000 as an endowment fund.

The convention received greetings from Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, who has been unable to attend.

RECEPTION BY THE BLKS.
The Petersburg Lodge of Elks gave a beautiful reception to the Daughters this afternoon at the new home on Tabb Street.

The spacious parlors were elaborately decorated, and the southern hospitality of the Elks was extended to the gift of Confederate Sons and Daughters.

Mrs. James A. Scott, of Lynchburg, registrar of the Virginia Division, U. D. C., left this afternoon for Norfolk.

At final session to-night all the old officers were re-elected, and Richmond selected as the next place of meeting.

Charles G. Elliott, of Norfolk, was elected first vice-president, and Mrs. General William Mahone an honorary president.

TUCKER TO SPEAK.
Hon. H. St. George Tucker will speak here on November 3 at a big Democratic rally, which will be held in the Academy of Music.

Mr. George Mason, chairman of the City Central Democratic Committee, will preside, and speeches will be made by Congressman Southall, Mr. C. T. Lassiter and other prominent Virginia Democrats.

Captain John R. Mullen, a member of the electoral board of the city to vacate caused by the resignation of Mr. Thomas B. Maclin, who was recently elected to the Council.

ON EASTERN SHORE.

Congressman Jones Exposes Republican Extravagance.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BALTIMORE, Va., Oct. 28.—Congressman William A. Jones addressed the people of this county here to-night in a speech of great force and conviction. His chief theme was the extravagance of the present administration, and the money drawn from the pockets of the people, had been put, he said, that there has, in the past few years, been piled up a great mountain of expenses, which other people in the world could stand, and that the expenditures far exceeded the enormous revenue. He dealt directly with the practices of the present administration of the government and that if it continues, the day would come, when this country will have to adopt the military system of Imperial Europe. Related in his impressive manner, he said the shadow of this imperialism now hangs over this country, and when we see the spirit of individual liberty depart, there will be no hope for this country. He spoke of Mr. Roosevelt as a man who seemingly has no regard for the law or the Constitution. Mr. Jones was followed by Mr. L. C. Garnett. There was a good crowd present. Mr. Jones will speak in Chincoteague to-morrow.

Was a Measly Docket.
"Square Graves" docket yesterday was what he termed "measly." It was short and uninteresting.

P. J. Atkins and T. J. Ryan were held until November 13 as suspicious characters.

Roy Herndon, colored, was assessed $250 for being disorderly, and $5 for being drunk and disorderly.

With a few small drunks, it was about all.

DAUGHTERS PROTEST AGAINST DESECRATION

(By Associated Press.)
ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 28.—The State Convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy to-day adopted resolutions protesting against the desecration of Memorial Day by games of base-ball and foot-ball and calling on all colleges and school authorities to discourage such practices. Resolutions were also passed condemning lynchings, mob law and other forms of lawlessness.

INSTANTLY KILLED IN A POOL ROOM

Thomas Irby, Who Was Put Out, Returns for an Apology.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, Va., Oct. 28.—Thomas Irby, a young man, twenty-three years old, son of W. G. Irby, was shot in the blind tiger section of the city late this afternoon and instantly killed by William C. Clements, who conducts a pool room.

Irby, who was under the influence of liquor, had been put out of the place for disorderly conduct some time before the fatal altercation. He returned later and demanded an apology, which was not granted. He then assumed a threatening attitude, and was shot by Clements, with the result as stated.

PROTECTED BY LAW.

Negro Who Attempted Criminal Assault on Two Little Girls.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ALEXANDRIA, Va., Oct. 28.—Robert Proctor, colored, aged seventeen years, was brought here to-day from Fairfax county and locked up on the charge of attempting to commit a criminal assault upon two small white girls named Robie Byrne and Elsie Smarr, aged respectively seven and eleven years.

While on their way to school near Annandale this morning, it is alleged Proctor stopped them and threatened to shoot them unless they went into the woods with him.

It is said he made suggestive statements to the girls, which they uttered loud cries for help. The attention of neighbors was attracted, and the assault made off.

The news of the affair spread rapidly, and in a few hours parties of farmers were scouring the country for the negro. His arrest near this city by two policemen is believed to have saved him from a lynching. As a precautionary measure, the girls were taken to the city.

Alexandria county jail this evening. He declares his innocence. The girls are daughters of respectable farmers.

MURDER TRIAL IS BEING PRESSED

Strong Evidence Is Being Adduced Against the Prisoners.

(By Associated Press.)
WAYCROSS, Ga., October 28.—All the testimony in the trial of Hillary Altman and Charles Altman was in before the adjournment of Charlton Superior Court at Folkston this afternoon, and to-morrow will be taken up in the hearing of the arguments.

Two negro witnesses for the State were positive in their statements that Hillary Altman killed Jackson Duncan and Charles Altman killed the negro, Jim Reilly.

The killing was committed in the doorway of the smoking compartment of the negro coach. There were several white witnesses to the row, but none could say who committed the murder.

W. M. Duncan, father of the murdered man, testified that his son informed him just before he died, that Hillary Altman had killed him. Another witness stated that the dying man had stated that "Altman killed me."

JUDGE PARKER SEES VICTORY AT POLLS

and election to counteract the effects of Judge Parker's address.

The Republicans here are becoming very much alarmed at the drift toward Judge Parker since the speech-making tour of Mr. Bryan and the advent of National Chairman Taggart upon the scene in Indiana. Chairman Cortelyou will spend all of his time now in the West with the hope of offsetting the work accomplished by these two Democratic leaders.

Judge Parker said:

"No more satisfactory evidence of the widespread public interest in the attempt to control the election by means of great corporations and trusts, need be looked for than that furnished by the President and his late Attorney-General, Knox. Knox was hidden to the presence of the President for a consultation. About what? About the inquiry of the large contributions being made by gigantic corporations and trusts? Not at all. But rather to devise means by which the force of the statement of this commonly accepted act could be parried. The outcome was an interview by Senator Knox.

"Now this long statement of Senator Knox has nothing whatever to do with the question uppermost in the public mind.

"Shall the creations of government—many of which pursue illegal methods—control our elections—control them by means belonging to their stockholders—moneys not given in the open and charged upon the books as moneys paid for political purposes, but hidden away by false bookkeeping?

A Cloud of Dust.

"This interview was intended to create a cloud of dust behind which he hoped to hide the charge he did not answer, and could not answer. That charge is that vast sums of money have been contributed for the control of this election in aid of the administration by corporations and trusts."

Judge Parker said trust officials were active in behalf of his opponent, and continued that activity may, perhaps, appear in no small measure for the ability of both the Populist and Socialist parties to prosecute expensive campaigns—campaigns that appear to be prosecuted largely in aid of the Republican party.

The administration also put out a cablegram from Governor Wright, of the Philippine Commission, in reply to some quotations made by me in a speech delivered on the 15th day of October. The words quoted were the careful utterances of a man who has spent four months in the Philippines studying the conditions there. He is vouched for by Charles Francis Adams, Carl Schurz, Edwin Burritt Smith, Herbert Welsh and Moorfield Storey.

Public Must Judge.

I ask you and through you the American people, to judge the Governor Wright's cablegram in connection with that report and then answer these questions: Do you believe the man thus vouched for by six of the best citizens in this country? Which is likely to be the truth? The man having no motive but to lead you astray, or the Governor who may be in some measure responsible for unfortunate conditions.

"Is the Governor's report of such a character as to justify an expenditure by the government of several hundred dollars to cable a part of my speech to Manila and to receive his reply by cable? It is not a government business. It is political business."

"If a few hundred dollars may be taken out from the public funds to thus assist the prosecution of a political campaign, why may not the money in the treasury be employed for any purpose that will help the campaign? How do we know but it is?

Is Held Immune.

"This is one of the evidences of the growth of imperialism."

"The head of the government 'can do no wrong.'"

"An assault upon his policy is an assault upon the people and hence the people's money can be legitimately used for his vindication. My speech charging administrative extravagance seems to have created some excitement. And this time the administration puts forward Horace A. Taylor. He makes a statement after a call on the President.

"Now you will observe that he nowhere challenges the figures given by me. They cannot be questioned. They show that after taking the fifty millions paid for the Panama Canal and rights, the government spent one hundred and sixty millions more last year than it did seven years ago under a Democratic administration. The deficit for the present fiscal year to October 25th is over twenty-one million, against $1,000,000 for the identical same period last year.

As to the Purposes.

"Returning to the Secretary Taylor's interview, it would seem as if its purpose—if it had any beyond that of creating a mist—was to deny my assertion that there were administrative officers forbidding government officers from making public statements of estimates upon which future appropriations are based. My answer is that the Treasury Department issued this order:

"Treasury Department,
"Office of the Secretary,
"September 7, 1904.

"The Heads of Bureaus and Chiefs of Divisions:

"Gentlemen.—It is requested that no information bearing upon the estimates of this department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, be made public until the estimates shall have been approved by the honorable Secretary of the Treasury."

"By direction of the Secretary,
"W. H. HILLS,
"Chief Clerk."

"I have copies of orders issued by other departments which I took the precaution to obtain before making public the statement now challenged."

Talked on Tariff.

Judge Parker then took up the tariff question, which he discussed at some length from the standpoint of the farmer, saying he has suffered even more possibly than the wage-earner by excessive tariff duties.

Judge Parker referred to the higher prices under protection as an assessment on the consumer, and asked: "Now do you think the law ought to compel you to continue to pay an assessment every time you or the members of your family buy an article of clothing or buy anything to use? That is precisely what we have been doing, until we have concentrated the wealth and power in the hands of a comparatively few hands. There are said to be 453 combinations or trusts in this country."

In order to make many of these combinations pay good dividends on the watered stocks, the tariff taxes, they say, must be kept at $60 a ton. The Republicans are trying to give success to the Republican party, because that party and its President have notified the country that they stand pat, as they call it, on the

DANIEL AT MARION.

Heard by Good Crowd, Though Not Known He Would Speak.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MARION, Va., Oct. 28.—Senator John W. Daniel reached this place at 9:30 o'clock this morning, and was met at the depot by Hon. B. F. Buchanan and immediately driven to the Valley House for rest and refreshments. Speaking began at 2 o'clock and while it was in progress, Daniel, who was generally known to the crowd, would be here, a large crowd gathered at the courthouse to hear him discuss issues of the campaign. In his address, Mr. Daniel, for his efforts to force upon the people of the South the race issue, that time had almost adjusted, imperial and trusts and similar issues, which he did not, as has been charged, close the door of hope to any man, or set of men, but only insisted that men must know and keep their places.

Save 31 Republicans were in the city, but not having the courage to resist the tide that is now sweeping over the Ninth District, had been abandoned. The crowd numbered the hour for speaking. For two hours and a half, the Senator held his audience with his masterful logic and his clear, logical reasoning.

The fight is in its most determined form in the Ninth and Joe Weyer's election is regarded as an almost certainty.

MARTIN AND KEEZELL.

With Judge Duke They Address the Democrats of Albemarle.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Oct. 28.—Senator Thomas S. Martin, State Senator Keezell, of Rockingham county, and Judge Duke, of Albemarle county, addressed the Democrats of Albemarle county this evening. Martin attacked the imperialistic policy of Roosevelt, refraining from mention of the Senatorial contest with Governor Montague.

Duke declared that he would be disappointed if the Underwood constitution was not adopted. He said that the "Tall Sycamore of Rockingham," said he is opposed to high tariff, is for sound money and for James Hay for Congress from the Seventh Congressional District of Virginia.

"Hay's opponent," said Keezell, "bears my name; he is a fine fellow, but he is nothing but a tool of the Democrats. He is elected at large on the State Democratic ticket."

Judge Parker Grateful.

(By Associated Press.)
ESPUS, (By Associated Press.)
28.—Judge Parker has expressed his appreciation of the part William J. Bryan has taken in the present campaign, and to-day sent him a telegram as follows:

"I wish to thank you for the splendid service you have rendered the Democratic party in Indiana and elsewhere during the present campaign."
(Signed) "ALTON B. PARKER."

Mr. Bryan Replies.

(By Associated Press.)
GMAHA, NEB., October 28.—W. J. Bryan has sent this telegram to Judge Parker:

"I appreciate the generous expressions of feeling of your telegram. I am paying an installment on the debt I owe the American people by endeavoring to secure for them the reforms which your administration will bring."

SWANSON AT FRANKLIN.

An Immense Crowd Gathers and He Makes Fine Speech.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROCKY MOUNT, Va., Oct. 28.—To-day has been a great day for Democracy in Franklin. Two thousand people gathered on the courthouse square from every section of the county to hear Virginia's gifted son, Hon. Charles A. Swanson, deliver his address on the campaign and to partake of the lunch, mutton and pork, barbecued for the occasion.

Mr. Swanson was introduced to the immense throng of people by County Chairman L. W. Anderson, who made a graceful introductory speech of twenty minutes or more. Mr. Swanson made the speech of his life, and had the crowd from start to finish. It was a reception of which he or any other man ought to be proud. Pictures of Parker and Davis were shown, and the crowd was very enthusiastic.

Mr. Swanson began his speech at half past twelve o'clock and concluded some twenty minutes after the speaking. The Rocky Mount band made excellent music. Altogether old politicians used in saying that the reception to Swanson on this occasion was the most notable in the history of the county.

Republicans at Staunton.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, Va., Oct. 28.—Hon. George A. Rye, Republican candidate for Congress, and Hon. Jacob Yeat, Ex-Congressman, also Republican, spoke to a fairly large Republican audience last night in the Police Court room.

Trouble for Jasper.

James Jasper, alias Atkins Jeffries, colored, who has been sent to the grand jury on the charge of housebreaking, was before Judge Graves yesterday on the charge of taking an organ and $1 belonging to Sallie McDaniel, also colored.

The case was continued for further investigation, and the detectives expect to find several more loads on the head of the negro.

INTEREST GROWING IN RIFLE PRACTICE

Teams to be Formed on Ship-board to Create Healthy Spirit of Rivalry.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28.—Since the establishment of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, which was organized by the War Department under act of Congress for the purpose of stimulating popular interest in military rifle and revolver practice, and affording facilities for the same, there has been a marked increase in the attention paid to this work in both the regular army, and, somewhat strange to say, in the navy. In addition to keeping their work with the rifle, and the success of the navy team at Fort Riley recently has led to a plan for the further encouragement of arms practice in the navy. It is intended that teams shall be formed on ship-board, so that a spirit of rivalry will be created between the crews of the different ships. Lieutenant Babin, of the navy, will have charge of a general naval team, which will keep up continuous practice at Annapolis until the next competition for the Hilton Trophy, won by the team at Fort Riley. Then members of the team will be assigned to the ships attached to the Coast Squadron for the purpose of being at hand for practice. The Navy Department has sent a letter to the authorities of the Naval Academy inquiring as to the condition of the range and the practicability of extending the same. It is hoped next year to have a match between the cadets at West Point and Annapolis. The "Middies" were ready to contest this year, but West Point either could not or would not furnish a team.

The Hilton Trophy has been shot for since 1878 and bears the names of some sixteen or more organizations which have held it for one or more years in the recent period. It will be placed in the reception room at the office of the Secretary of the Navy.

BLOODY TRAGEDY AT ABINGDON, VA.

Smith B. Cubine Shot Down in the Street by Gordon Johnson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ABINGDON, Va., Oct. 28.—A bloody tragedy occurred this afternoon in front of the county courthouse, in which Smith B. Cubine, a tinner and painter, well known throughout the county, was shot down in the street by Gordon Johnson, a local physician, who had been shot down in the street by Gordon Johnson. They met about 6 o'clock, and Cubine became engaged in a scuffle for the gun, which was discharged, and the abdomen of Cubine was perforated. An operation on Cubine soon after the shooting, and stitched up twenty perforations in his bowels.

Cubine's recovery is regarded as impossible. It is a noted character in this county, and town, and Johnson has been in business trouble for some time.

FATHER'S LOVE FOR SON.

Forgives His Boy Who Robbed and Tried to Kill Him.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUEFOLK, Va., Oct. 28.—Instead of prosecuting the son who sought his life, Jesse E. Rawls, of the Kelly Street market, has forgiven his son, who had been charged with the robbery of a cash box, and the attempt to kill him. Mr. Rawls, during an interview in his cell this afternoon, said his father said word that he would make good the amount of his forgiveness. He said he was not yet applied for bail, but soon will. Rawls confesses both crimes, and says he don't know why he committed them, unless his mind were not right.

MR. TYLER DENIES.

Member of Board of Fisheries Defends That Body.

A Norfolk paper has recently severely criticized the State Board of Fisheries for alleged dereliction of duty, and for holding secret sessions.

Mr. H. M. Tyler, a member of the board from this city, denies that there is any ground for the criticism, and says that the members have been faithful in the performance of their duties.

He asserts that no secret sessions have been held, and as to the charge of arrogance, Mr. Tyler says one oyster inspector was removed because he failed properly to discharge his duties.

Mr. Tyler said further that a rapid-fire gun had been mounted on the James River, and it was proving very efficacious in the capture of violators of the law.

Regarding the increase in the revenues from the oyster industry, Mr. Tyler said:

"Last year the gross receipts were $22,000 in round numbers, and this year it will be about $70,000. The net revenue to the State will show a corresponding increase, for where we received last year about $10,000 we will this year turn over to the State about $45,000."

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CHAMPIONSHIP WON

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 28.—The American Athletic Union gymnastic championship was won to-day in the stadium at the World's Fair. Out of an entry of forty gymnasts, only ten were present to participate in the seven events. The all-around champion was won by Anton Heida, of Philadelphia. Turner, Jr. was first in horse and second in parallel bars, and was also first in the high bar, long horse and vault. He was first in flying rings.

Operated on for Appendicitis.
Mrs. John E. Wagner, who has been complaining of feeling ill since her return from the World's Fair several days ago, was promptly taken to the Retreat for the Sick, where an operation was performed.

Dr. W. H. C. A. Richmond, who was operated upon the patient and she is doing very well. So far as can now be known, the operation was an entire success, and the patient will be well within the period necessary for the healing of the incision.

Petition in Bankruptcy.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States District Court yesterday by George P. Lynch, a traveling salesman of Henrico, through Attorney P. Albert Smith.

The petition alleges that Lynch is unable to pay his debts, and that he is insolvent. The assets are stated as of the value of $350, all of which is exempt from liability.

hibition of sharp and determined fighting yesterday. They drove the Russians from a high hill, ten miles east of the railroad in General Kurik's front, which is important strategically as a post of observation and was the only point south of the Shakh River, which the Russians held. About a regiment of Russians were entered into the battle, and the Japanese rushed the Russian trenches, shot many Russians as they were running down the hillside and captured two machine guns. The Japanese had twenty men killed and eighty wounded.

The Russian left thirty dead on the field. They were shot down and falling when the trenches were taken. The Russians retired across the river. When the Japanese flag was raised over a tower surrounding the hill, the Russian batteries showered shrapnel on it for an hour but without result.

Russians Showing Considerable Activity and Aggression.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ST. PETERSBURG, October 28.—The general staff has received the following dispatch from General Sakharoff, dated to-day:

"On October 26th, the Russian cavalry corps, reinforced in force in the direction of Kekoukai. A division commanded by Prince Tumanoff forced the enemy from the village of Hailaosa on the right bank of the Hun River, opposite the village of Kekoukai. To assume a battle formation
